FOREWORD

Points of Light is a collection of case studies highlighting the work that local (parish and town) councils are undertaking to support their communities. Each case study features a summary of the work carried out alongside electorate, precept and expenditure figures of the local councils involved.

The case studies have been compiled to promote good practice and raise awareness of the diverse range of services local councils are facilitating. Running a post office, providing a changing places toilet, employing a youth skills manager, launching a community alcohol partnership and declaring a climate emergency are just some of the examples of activity contained in this edition.

Research for Points of Light has come from a range of sources, including articles from LCR magazine, Council Spotlight, entries to NALC’s Star Council Awards and local news stories.

NALC hopes this guide inspires all local councils to take that extra step to support their community and aides understanding of what they do.
